CAMPAIGN TO AID CHEKIANG SUFFERERS IS OPENED HERE

More Than $100,000 Pledged At Meeting

SOUTER SPEAKS

Prospects For Raising Million Believed Good

The $1,000,000 famine relief drive for Chekiang was inaugurated on Sunday at the Ningpo Association. More than 800 people attended the program. The sum of $110,000 was pledged by the various teams at the opening meeting. Results of the campaign will be announced every night after December 13, when daily meetings of the team captains will be held.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. Chu Pao-san, chairman of the association. General Ho Feng-lin, the local Defense Commissioner representing President Li Yuan-hung; Taoyin Chang, representing Tupan Lu Yung-hsiang of Chekiang; Mr. Souter of the International Famine Relief Committee; Mr. Yuan Li-hung, captain of a team and Mr. Wang Ching-wei, the southern leader, were among the speakers at the meetings. Chairman Simms, of the S.M.C. was unable to attend, but sent a letter, as did the French Consul General.

According to the speech of Tupan Lu Yung-hsiang which was read by Taoyin Chang the recent flood effected over 60 cities of the province, causing the death of 50,000 and the loss of homes by millions.

MR. SOUTER'S ADDRESS

Following is Mr. Souter's address: At this inaugural meeting of the campaign for one million dollars you have heard about the efforts of our Chinese-Foreign Famine Relief Committee in seeking to raise this money.

My part in this meeting is:—First, to say something of the need of the famine stricken people—and second: To say a word or two as to our organisation for distribution of the funds received.

On the first point I need not give you details of districts where the disastrous typhoons piled up sand and stones as high as 20 feet on the arable land; or tell you of other lands and homes laid waste by water; or how salt water has made large areas salt and unfit for crops for two years at least. I say, I need not give this meeting more in detail on the need for in both the Chinese and foreign press full details have been published from both Chinese and foreigners resident right in the midst of stricken districts.

I want to emphasise the real need for relief. The presence on this Committee of influential Chinese and foreigners of Shanghai, and the fact that a number of them have been meeting every night (for hours at a stretch) for the past month devising ways and means to raise money, indicates how much suffering really exists. Further, some of the well known foreigners of Shanghai have come forward to lend a hand to their Chinese friends in their large hearted effort to secure funds for the famine stricken people.

On the second point—the Distribution of Funds—I want to make clear that the relief will be given, so far as possible, in grain, and, where it is feasible, in return for some work of a constructive nature; but, a necessity, there will require to be a large measure of food given to the women and children and old men.

COLLECTING REPORTS

We are now collecting detailed results of investigation made in the affected districts by Chinese and foreigners. On this detailed authenticated report, the relief will largely be given.

This distribution is being handled by International Committees centered at Hangchow and Ningpo, and on these Committees and their Sub-Committees are the Roman Catholic and Protestant missionaries and business men, most Chinese and foreign, and no better guarantee of efficient distribution can be obtained.

Our Chinese-Foreign Famine Relief Committee here keeps a supervision over the whole work and both Chinese and foreigners on this Committee have wrought together for a period of years and

BY J. L. BUTTS

Somewhat refreshed by two days off duty, but still bearing signs of hard usage, Chinese Constable 1133 took the witness box at the Mixed Court yesterday and regarded the eleven men in the prisoners' dock with a hostile glare.

"They were all drunk and creating an awful disturbance in front of a shop on the North Chengtu Road," the policeman told the Court. "And when I remonstrated with them, the six on the right-hand side of the dock hit me with stools."

Other policemen gave testimony with regard to the rounding up of the eleven, after C.P.C. 1133 had lost count of the proceedings.

The six dexter occupants of the sinners' pew made faint denial of the charge, attributing the trouble to Uncle John Barleycorn. The other five protested strenuously and called upon the Bench to consider if the half-dozen huskies aforementioned were engaged in beating the officer, how much chance they would have had to get into the party. The Court evidently saw the logic of the argument, for the five were dismissed with a warning and the residue were fined $5 each, with the option of five days also each.

AND NO ALARM CLOCKS

The honorable profession of watching, which has fallen into considerable disrepute—especially hereabouts—since the days of Cerberus, seems to be coming to the fore again. Anyway, Watchman Li Ling-bung, engaged to guard the domicile of Zung Tsen-tsz at 63 Yangtszepoo Road, was eminently on the job Sunday evening when Li Fah-nyeu sneaked out the back door bearing the upholstery for two of the household's beds.

"Why did you take 'em?" the Court wanted to know yesterday.

"Well," replied Li, "there didn't seem to be anybody around and I didn't know the beds belonged to anybody."

A nice soft pine couch in the Municipal Hostelry for Li for the next fortnight was what the Court ordered.

A Chinese shopkeeper charged with ill-treating live ducks by overcrowding them into baskets at the Stone Bridge contributed $5 to the S.S.P.C.A. by direction of the Mixed Court yesterday. He said that there were only 181 of the birds and they couldn't have been much overcrowded.

Another poultryman who came under the observation of the police while carrying his stock along Shantung Road also pleaded that the fowls had ample accommodations. Sub-Inspector Wilson, however, testified that they were so cramped that there were two layers of them in each basket. $5 was the donation in this case too.

Christ A. Meletis

CHRISTOPHER A. Meletis, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who served in France with the Twenty-eighth Division and was wounded six times, won the Croix de Guerre from France for courage. He has returned the cross to President Millerand of France, declaring the hurts he received in France were as nothing compared to the wound he received when he learned the French were aiding the Turks.

GREEK PRINCE IS EXILED BECAUSE OF PART IN WAR

Andrew Convicted Of Disobeying Orders On Battlefield

(Reuter's Service)

Athens, Dec. 3.—Prince Andrew and Princess Alice left Athens this afternoon and embarked at Phalerum on board a British warship.

Lausanne, Dec. 3.—M. Chicherin has written to the President of the Conference, again protesting against the exclusion of the Russian delegates from the Conference excepting the discussion on the Straits. The Note declares that Russia will not be bound by the Conference's decisions taken in her absence and declines all responsibility for the abnormal state of affairs resulting from this.

Athens, Dec. 3.—Prince Andrew has been sentenced to perpetual banishment and military degradation.

Athens, Dec. 2.—The trial of Prince Andrew opened in the House of Parliament this morning. Prince Andrew is charged with disobeying orders on the battlefield.

London, Dec. 3.—A semi-official account of the trial of Prince Andrew at Athens says that he is charged, as Commander of the Second Army Corps, with refusing to obey an order of the Commander-in-Chief to attack the enemy during the advance on Sangarius.

The Prince pleaded that his Corps had been ordered before attacking to await instructions from the Third Army Corps which did not arrive.

Colonel Sariyannis, the Deputy Chief of Staff to the Commander-in-Chief, General Papoulas, said that the reply of the Second Army Corps that an attack to the north was impossible owing to the enemy's defence works was so unexpected that the Chief of Staff

Judge Charles S. Lobingier of the United States Court for China was elected President Emeritus of the Far Eastern Bar Association, and Mr. Stirling Fessenden was elected president at the ninth annual meeting of the association held in the United States Court last evening.

Other officers elected were: Vice-President for China, South of the Yangtsze, Mr. Roland S. Haskell; Vice-President for China, North of the Yangtsze, Mr. Theodore E. Simmang; Vice-President for the Philippines, Judge James Ross; Secretary, Mr. F. J. Schuhl, former United States Commissioner.

Five new members were elected to the Association, including Mr. Isador A. Lendesman, Mr. Walter Chalaire, Mr. Elijah Anthony, Mr. Sidney A. Moss, and Mr. Gustave Lang (Associate membership). Mr. M. N. Zankl's resignation was accepted.

The association voted to cooperate with the International Bar Association, provided such action in no way affected its relationship with the National American Bar Association, and the following members were chosen as delegates to the convention of the International Association at Manila on January 11, 12 and 13, 1922:

Judge Charles S. Lobingier, Maj. Chauncey P. Holcomb, Dean W. W. Blume, Roland S. Haskell, Ferno J. Schuhl, Leonard W. Hartigan, of Shanghai, and Theodore E. Simmang of Tientsin.

JUDGE IS SPEAKER

The Secreary's report was read and approved. The President thereupon read his annual address as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Association. One of the duties of the President of this body is to review those occurrences of the closing year which are of special interest to its membership, and particularly those affecting the courts and the legal profession in this part of the world. The past year has been unusually fruitful in such occurrences. The Washington Conference, several of whose plenary sessions it was my privilege to attend, and which was so productive of important results for this region, took action of special interest to lawyers in China in providing for the appointment of a Commission to investigate and report upon native, legal and judicial conditions here. The commencement of the Commission's task has been postponed at the request of the Chinese government, until next Autumn, but when it does come this Association should be able to render it considerable assistance in gathering correct and reliable information. The problem with which the Commission is to deal is primarily a lawyers' problem and the advice and experience of the foreign lawyers, already in China, should prove helpful to the Commission.

CITES CASES

"Two cases before the Supreme Court during the year related to the work of the United States Court for China and in each, that Court's jurisdiction was upheld. The first, (1) decided January 3, 1922, has a direct bearing on

His many friends in Shanghai will be shocked to hear of the death suddenly last evening of Mr. J. Snodgrass, of the Municipal Council's secretariat, Captain of the Machine Gun Company of the S.V.C. and prominent in local amateur dramatics.

Mr. Snodgrass had been ill the last few days, but his illness was not considered by his wide circle of friends to be of such serious nature. Pneumonia was the cause of death. He died in his home in Sinza Road at about 6 o'clock last night.

Mr. Snodgrass was about 38 years of age and came to Shanghai about three years ago. He had served with the Gurkas in India as Lieutenant and was considered an exceptionally able military officer and very popular with his fellow volunteers here. He was made captain of the Machine Gunners some six months ago.

A clever amateur actor, Mr. Snodgrass was active in A. D. C. work here and had appeared to much advantage with the local players. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Vera Doris before her marriage.

A military funeral will be held for the late S.V.C. officer, to take place at Bubbling Well Cemetery at 4 o'clock tomorrow.

Most Perfect Profile In The World

Baroness Leja de Torinoff

BARONESS Leja de Torinoff is acclaimed by European artists as having the most beautiful profile in the world.

Madame Isis Is Arrested By American Authorities; In Court This Afternoon

The recently enacted American law, which decrees that alien women marrying Americans do not become American citizens, will be tested in the United States Commissioner's Court this afternoon when Madame Isis will appear before Commissioner N. E. Lurton charged with telling fortunes in contravention of an ancient American law, adopted from the reign of King George, which is still on the statutes under the general classification of "witches."

The case is considered extremely important from a legal standpoint because it will be the first time the new law has been tested and the case may be carried to the United States Supreme Court to test its constitutionality. The test is logically made in Shanghai because while Americans in other countries are under the jurisdiction of the laws of the country in which they reside, Americans in China are subject only to the United States laws because of extraterritoriality.

If Commissioner Lurton assumes jurisdiction for the American authorities in the case it will mean that the new law has been upset, so far as the local courts are concerned, and may prove to be the opening legal attack that will determine for all time whether or not the new law is constitutional.

Madame Isis recently appeared in the British Police Court on the same charge, but the case was dismissed when Mr. H. D. Rodger, her attorney raised the issue of the jurisdiction of the court as Madame Isis, who was a British subject, had married Mr. William Francis Wallace, an American, in the time intervening between her arrest and her appearance in court. Judge Peter Grain held that by her marriage Madame Isis lost her British citizenship and was, therefore, no longer subject to British law.

Under usual circumstances Madame Isis, or Mrs. Wallace, would have been charged in the American Court as the wife of an American, but under the recently enacted law it was decreed that alien women marrying Americans do not become American citizens, until they satisfy naturalisation laws and it was therefore held that Madame Isis was not an American, but could be charged only in the International Mixed Court as a foreign woman without a country.

Yesterday, however, Acting United States District Attorney C. P. Holcomb issued a warrant for her arrest, and late yesterday afternoon United States Marshal Thurston E. Porter served the warrant on Madame Isis in her apartments at the Palace Hotel. She was immediately released on her own recognisance and will be arraigned before Commissioner Lurton at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Major Holcomb will appear for the prosecution, and Mr. H. D. Rodger, who secured her dismissal in the British Court, will appear for the defense.

Police are Still Without Clues In Goldenberg Murder

No appreciable progress was made by police in their investigation into the circumstances surrounding the murder of Bernard Goldenberg, general manager of the Ramos Amusement Company, yesterday.

Despite the fact that Chief William Armstrong has had several of his best men detailed to the case since Mr. Goldenberg's body was first found not a substantial clue to the murderer or the actual motive has been unearthed. The murder of the theater manager is just as much a mystery today as it was on last Monday morning when the body was discovered.

Police are still working on the elimination of details of the time, place, motive and possible murder or murderers with the object in view of getting to the bottom of the baffling problem which has proved Shanghai's most mysteriously enacted tragedy.

The Court ordered M. Pernotte to return to the Banque the sum of 806,000 francs which he improperly drew.

The Court declared that the accused had not profited personally in the matter of the issue of the Pacific Company bonds.

CHAOS RULES IN TSINGTAU; BANDITS ARE UNMOLESTED

Business Paralysed, Shops And Stores Closed

NO RELIEF SEEN

Chamber Of Commerce President Taken Captive

(Special To The China Press)

Tsingtau, Dec. 4.—The postponement of the transfer of administrative authority has paralysed business. Shops and stores are closed and bandits are operating unhindered in the city. Apparently there is no co-operation between the Japanese and Chinese, and as a consequence all classes are nervous. There is no immediate prospect that the situation will improve.

That a reign of terror among prominent Chinese merchants of Tsingtau has been inaugurated by the action of the Shantung bandits in kidnaping Mr. Chu Shih-ching, Chairman of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Mao, was indicated on the arrival here yesterday of Mr. P. G. Chang, Tsingtau business man who fled from that city Saturday after receiving intimation that the brigands were on his trail.

According to Mr. Chang, Mr. Chu received an invitation to attend a dinner last Thursday evening. He accepted and attended at the address given. There he was taken in charge by several men, placed in a motor car and taken to the mountains outside the city.

Threats of mutilation of the captive accompanied the demand for ransom. It was announced by the bandits, so the story goes, that unless the first demand for money was met, one of the prisoner's toes would be cut off. If the ransom was not then forthcoming, another toe would be slashed off, and so on.

Mr. Chang's hasty departure from Tsingtau was in consequence of the receipt by him last Saturday of an ambiguous invitation to dinner, practically identical to that received by the Chamber of Commerce head. He received the invitation at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and immediately made preparations to catch the steamer Sakaki Maru which sailed two hours later for Shanghai.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Dec. 4.—The Chinese Chamber of Commerce at Tsinanfu has telegraphed requesting Dr. C. T. Wang to go to Shantung immediately in connection with the taking over of Tsingtau, but the latter is prevented from complying owing to the necessity of his presence at the deliberations of the Second Section of the Shantung Joint Commission.

(China Press Service)

Peking, Dec. 2.—Mr. Chu Shih-ching, Chairman of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce in Tsingtau, and Mr. Mao Shao-fu, Special Delegate of the Shantung Tuchun on the Sino-Japanese Joint Commission for the restoration of Tsingtau were captured by bandits on Thursday night.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs has made representations to the Japanese Legation requesting it to instruct the Japanese police authorities at Tsingtau to co-operate with the Chinese authorities in effecting the release of Messrs. Chu and Mao.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Dec 3.—The President has sent a communication to the House of Representatives stating that a settlement with regard to the price for the re-purchase of the Kiaochao-Tsinan Railway has not been reached.

He wished to inform Parliament that the Japanese asked for 40,000,000 yen whereas the Chinese delegates offered 30,000,000.

Having received a report in that connection from Dr. C. T. Wang, the President thought it necessary immediately to refer the matter to Parliament as the issue of the necessary bonds will entail a heavy strain on the national exchequer.

The President, therefore, requested the House to call a special meeting to consider the matter without awaiting the settlement of the exact amount.

MOVIE MAN HERE HAD CLOSE CALLS IN GHANDI RIOTS

William H. Jensen Has Filmed Wild Animal Life In India

Mr. William H. Jensen, who is responsible for taking many interesting motion pictures of wild animal life in Africa and India, arrived recently from Bombay on the Awa Maru to become a member of the motion picture colony in Shanghai. He is accompanied by Mrs. Jensen and his son, who are his constant companions, on his "picture hunting" expeditions.

Mr. Jensen filmed all the activities of the Prince of Wales during the latter's tour through India and Australia, and tells of several narrow escapes during the Ghandi riots which followed. He has several excellent films of wild game hunting in the African wilds which have been exhibited both at home and abroad. He was the official camera man attached to the Oakland Nuseum Expedition headed by Dr. H. A. Snow and traveled through the majority of the South American Republics where he collected many interesting antiques which were photographed.

Bandman's Coming

A Bandman Company—billed as a farcical company this time—is again to appear in Shanghai shortly. Which is an announcement that will be received with pleasure by local theater-goers.

The company, which expects to open here at the Olympic Theater on December 16, is composed of London artists and the repertoire contains many recent London successes. Among the plays announced for production here are "Tons of Money," "French Leave," "Other Peoples' Worries," "Daddy Long Legs," "Her Husband's Wife," "The Young Person in Pink" and "Tillie of Bloomsbury."

Chinese Theater To Present Play Based On Life Of Suicide

The Dih Yih Dai Theater, Foochow Road, has announced the early performance of a tragedy entitled "Miss Zih Zang-tseng," named after the young mailing clerk of the Journal of Commerce who committed suicide in the office of its managing editor, Dr. F. C. Tong, ten weeks ago. At the opening session on last Saturday of the trial of Tong, charged with obtaining $5,000 by false pretense from the deceased, the theater manager and several actors were presented as spectators.

The Tungshan Guild, whose committee made a full investigation of the case has raised the sum of $2,000 for the family of the deceased. The mother of the deceased informed the guild that she had spent every cent she had in connection with her daughter's investment as well as her subsequent suicide.

Hold Inquests Over Two Chinese Killed Here In Accidents

Two inquests are to be conducted in the International Mixed Court over two Chinese who died of accidents over the week-end. One inquest is to be held over Gee Yoong-faung, aged 7, of 462 East Yalu Road, who died on December 3. It is said that Gee was injured in a fight with another Chinese boy on September 22, and that he died of injuries received then.

Another inquest is to be held over Si Ah-fah, a coolie who died of injuries received when the handcart he was repairing fell on him on Yuenfong Road.

Subpoena Accounts In New World Case

The case in which Loh Sih-yen, former manager of the New World, is charged by King Wong-sz with embezzling $226,000 from that amusement place was again before the Mixed Court yesterday. The case is being heard by Assessors Carvalho and Allman and Magistrate Kwan. It was again adjourned, a subpoena being ordered to issue for Chen Yung-ting, who is to bring to court all account books in his possession which have reference to the case.

Germans Have No Fear Of Threats, Chancellor Says

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Dec. 3.—The Chancellor, Herr Cuno, addressing the Press Union today, said that those who were acquainted with German conditions realised that nothing more could be done regarding reparations than was indicated in the Note addressed to the Reparations Commission on November 13. The only way out of the situation would be an open discussion among the parties concerned. The German Government would not be influenced by ultimatums, threats or further occupations of territory. Germany would not consent to the surrender of the Rhine Province, the Bavarian Palatinate, the Saar district or endangering the postponement of their liberation.

Germans See Red Over Allied Notes

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Dec. 3.—The Allied Note has evoked bitterness amongst the newspapers, one of which heads its comments with "Million gold marks for damaging the varnish of a motorcar."

The Vorwaerts says that the Entente's demands will arouse deep, and to a great extent justified, bitterness throughout Germany but adds that Germany has to thank her chauvinists for the new humiliation.

The Frankfurter Zeitung declares that the Note is calculated to make the blood of the calmest German boil and denies the Entente's right to deal with anybody except the Government.

Paris, Dec. 2.—The newspapers are gratified at the presentation of the Allies Note to the German Government, considering it the inauguration of the system advocated by the French Government to test Germany's good faith.

Le Journal says that if Germany submits this will prove that coercion is useful.

The Petit Parisien rejoices that Bavaria, as the center of extreme Nationalism, is experiencing a new method. The paper declares that Germany, if she is wise, will recognise that times are changing and that the patience of the Allies is exhausted.

Chinese Guilty Of Attempted Murder

A Chinese charged with the attempted murder of his deceased cousin's wife was found guilty by Assessor Mead and Magistrate Li of the Mixed Court yesterday and judgment will be pronounced next Monday.

The complainant in the case, one Sz Wong-se, was able to appear in Court yesterday for the first time, though the attack was made early in November. She had been hacked with a chopper. The cause of the assault, she said, was apparently her refusal to accede to a request made by the accused that her late husband's concubine be given to him as his wife.

CHINA TRADE ACT TO AID U. S., SAYS BUREAU DIRECTOR

Julius Klein Thinks New Capital Will Be Attracted

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Nov. 5.—Mr. Julius Klein, Director of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, writing in the "New York Evening Post," says:—

Probably the most important piece of foreign trade legislation passed by the recent Congress is the China Trade Act. American merchants now have a new medium with which to extend not only their merchandising, but investment and industrial activities in China.

Mr. Klein points out the many difficulties which have attended the endeavor of American companies to compete in China when those companies which flocked to China soon after the armistice found it impossible to maintain themselves and 90 percent of these newly-organised companies withdrew from China within a year.

Under the new law, Mr. Klein adds, such companies may claim total or partial exemption from income-tax. The beneficial results of this legislation should be manifold. By permitting almost complete Chinese ownership of these companies, merely providing that a majority of the directors shall be Americans, an enormous amount of Chinese capital is expected to be attracted to the American flag. This will be beneficial both to America and China, as it will enable engineers to organise industrial concerns in China with little capital, merely placing their experience against the great amount of capital which is known to be hidden away in China and thus aid the industrialisation of this great Republic. The benefits to China are clearly manifest in that a new medium for the investment of Chinese capital will be at hand under a national law of the United States, for which every Chinese has great respect and goodwill.

In conclusion, Mr. Klein says:—Under the new economic conditions created and to be developed in the Far East as a result of the Washington Conference it seems highly probable that our trade with China will progress in the next few years even more rapidly than it has in the recent abnormal past and that America's trading interests in China will tend to approximate in number of firms and in personnel those of Great Britain and Japan, now that the China Trade Act has removed the disadvantage under which our nationals competed with theirs.

first thought that it was meant as a joke.

If Prince Andrew had executed the order the battle at Sangarius would in all probability have been won.

The Commander-in-Chief, General Papoulas, testifying, admitted that the Prince was not dismissed from his command because he was the King's brother.

Athens, Dec. 3.—Parliament was very crowded on the occasion of Prince Andrew's trial, many court habitues, including ladies and generals, being present. General Trivilas giving evidence for the defense, vigorously supported the Prince's action. He said that General Papoulas's orders were practically contradictory. He denied that Prince Andrew had ever disobeyed orders.

M. Carvounis, a Greek war correspondent, declared that Prince Andrew was an exemplary soldier. He shared the hardships with his men and treated his officers as equals. He had never taken advantage of his position.

Prince Andrew read his own defense, which had obviously been prepared for him. He pleaded that it was unfair to treat a Prince like other generals as he was only a figurehead. He had occupied the position as chief of an army corps owing to the fact that he was a brother of the King.

Prince Andrew's counsel, M. Damaskinos, recommended the judges as good soldiers to judge the accused as they would any other soldier.

Princess Alice, the wife of Prince Andrew, when informed of the sentence by friends, said that she was relatively happy at the result of the trial.

Paris, Dec. 2.—The Temps understands that the French Government through its Minister at Athens associates itself wholeheartedly in any steps to protect the Prince's life, as France is desirous of doing her utmost to prevent the shedding of blood and to avoid hasty action.

Paris, Dec. 3.—The King of Spain is reported to have made a demarche to the Athens Government in favor of Prince Andrew, whose wife is a cousin of the Queen of Spain.

Paris, Dec. 2.—According to the London Times the native population of Smyrna is reported to have made a demonstration, requesting the return of the Christian population in view of the resumption of business there.

handled enough famine distribution work to enable us to make the necessary arrangements for a wise division of funds in the famine areas.

In closing, I wish success to the campaign and as I know (from the inside) the amount of work the Campaign Committee has already put in, I can only say that they deserve success in raising even more than the one million aimed at.

There are certain times each year when it is safe to eat oysters. Custom has it that this season is from September to April—during the months containing the letter R. The rest of the year leave them alone.

At certain phases of the Business Cycle occur opportune times to purchase bonds which combine safety and a good yield. We are now passing through such a period. A year ago high-class bonds paid 8%; at present 7% a year hence probably 6%.

This is an R month for oysters and BONDS.

YOUR ESTATE IS YOUR MONUMENT

SOMEONE has said that when a man dies there are two things he must leave behind: his material possessions and his reputation. These things are related, and the latter depends largely on the former.

IF a man has lived and kept his family in comfort during his life, but passes away without having made proper provision for their support, it will certainly appear as a serious blemish on his reputation,—as an evidence of disgraceful negligence or selfishness.

THIS danger can be provided against, certainly and effectively, by an adequate life insurance policy in a strong company.

court's probate jurisdiction, it ng an action, commenced in District of Columbia, against onsul, whose authority in such es, derives from the same rce as the court's. The ond case (2) was an applica- for a writ of certiorari to ng up for review a judgment the Court of Appeals affirm- a conviction, for contempt by United States Court for China. e aplication was filed in gust, during vacation, and dis- sed upon the reopening of the rt in October.

A curious official slip, affect the administration of the ne court, was happily correct- by the Attorney General in an nion (3) filed on February 8 the present year, recognising accepting the court's decrees adoption. Such an opinion uld not have been necessary for the fact that some three rs ago a vice consul in China te to the Department of State uiring as to the validity of the ree of adoption of a child then ing in his district. Had the uiry been made of the United tes attorney for China, or bsequently referred to him, the tter could have been settled a reference to the numerous cisions of the court on that bject. The communication, wever, ultimately fell into the nds of a law clerk who unfortunately was wholly unfamiliar h those decisions or with ex- ritorial law and practice. Not lling a specific grant of juris- tion to adopt, and ignoring the ad grant of jurisdiction in all il cases, he wrote an opinion, ich actually passed the scrutiny a superior (though reluctant- denying such jurisdiction. Of rse the decrees of a court can be nullified in any such man- . But the effect on the un- rmed public particularly as ards decrees previously render- was clearly harmful and it s one of the first subjects ich I took up with the De- rtment of Justice on my visit ne last year. I found the De- rtment officials quite ready to sider it and, once their atten- n was called to the matter, to move any impression that the gments of the United States rt for China may be review- by any other authority than Appellate Court.

COURT'S FEE BILL

Another matter which I was e to have readjusted while in shington was the court's fee. Ever since its organisation had been working under a fee edule promulgated for the con- ar courts in 1864. This had been ridiculously inadequate, ecially as compared with that other extraterritorial courts, repeated efforts to secure a nge by legislative enactment ved fruitless. In Washington vever, I was able to have the tter laid before the President, in the organic act (4) is powered to make changes in fee schedule and who acted h gratifying promptness in roving and promulgating the which I had prepared. A g step has thus been taken ard making the court self porting.

I was also able to secure some uable contributions to our rary from the Carnegie En- wment for International Peace. e of the notable achievements that worthy institution is the blication of a large number of uable works on International w, including a reprint of some the standard but rare classics that subject. The Endowment plies its publications to libra- s of accredited standing upon ain conditions and I was for- ate enough to have our coun- ary made a full beneficiary. y are housed in a separate tion of the library, whose use- ness is greatly enhanced by uiring most of the standard ks on the law of nations. In connection I desire to remind Association of the importance renewing the policy of insur- e on the library which it has n carrying for several years it being contrary to govern- ntal practice to carry insur- e.

It was my privilege to repre- this Association at the Con- nce of Bar Association Dele- es held in Washington on ruary 23 and 24 of this year consider the raising of stan- ds for admission to the bar, was the occasion for the gather- of some of the best minds jurisdiction by the Commissioner would materially relieve the court and would enable it to devote its attention exclusively to the more important cases. Legislation is also needed to render assault cases in the outside districts cognisable by consuls, the possible penalty at present being beyond the limit of their jurisdiction.

IN NINTH YEAR

"Our Association is now entering upon the ninth year of its existence. At its inception the local membership was neither extensive nor cohesive and the members expressed the desire that, in the interests of harmony, I should accept the Presidency. They have since done me the ly; but, aside from the growing honor of re-electing me annual- burden of judicial work which renders it impossible for me to give to the Presidency the time which it requires, the conditions which led me to accept the office in the first place no longer exist. There is now a strong and solidified local membership of more than 30, with about an equal number outside of Shanghai. There should be no difficulty of finding among this number excellent material for the Presidency and I will ask you to relieve me from further service in that office. I shall always retain a deep interest in the welfare of the association which I had a share in founding, and whatever I can further do to promote its interests will be gladly done. I see in it great possibilities of good in maintaining a high standard for the bar and in affording material assistance to the court. In retiring now after eight years as President I desire to express my sincere thanks to the association for its expression of confidence in re-electing me so often and for the loyal support which it has always given me."

CHINA MERCHANTS INVESTIGATION IS PROTESTED

National Association Objects To Interference By Government

Further protests to the proposed Government investigation of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company administration here are being addressed to Peking, according to the local Chinese press.

In a letter addressed to the Shareholders' Association of the China Merchants' Company on Dec. 3 by the Chinese National Merchant United Association, it is stated that, owing to the harmful intervention of investigation by the Ministry of Communications of the private shipping company, telegrams of protest were dispatched by that Association to the President and the Cabinet requesting instruction to be issued to the Ministry of Communications to withdraw the proposed investigation and also requesting instructions to be issued to the Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce to give due protection to the company. The Association also requested the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company to hold an extraordinary meeting of the shareholders, at an early date, to amend the constitution and investigate and publish the real circumstances for the information of the public.

Upon the question of the Government's investigation, Mr. Yih Kong-chia, ex-Minister of Communications, now residing near Osaka, has expressed his disapproval of such action of the Government, through one of his friends who has just returned to Shanghai from Japan. According to the latter's statements, Yih favored rectification of any existing ills by the shareholders themselves and opposed any attempts for nationalisation of shipping enterprises.

It is anticipated that Mr. Wang on his retirement will return to the post of President of the Administrative Court to which Dr. Wellington Koo was to have been appointed. Meanwhile, a mandate places Mr. Shou Chang in charge of the Court's affairs.

General Tsao Kun is reported to have sent a circular telegram to the Provinces stating that Mr. Wang Tah-hsieh was the man who furnished Mr. Lo Wen-kan's bail and that Mr. Hsu Shih-ying, Director of the Sino-Italian Bank, was associated with the Lo Wen-kan case and therefore should be disqualified as members of the Cabinet.

BY TOMMY GRAFTON

Before an enthusiastic crowd at the Rowing Club last night, two games of the Foreign Basketball league were played. The "Blues" got away to a good start in the opening game, winning from the "Whites" through the fast playing and shooting of Coulcher and Goldman. Neprud, who played center for the winners in the second half, was in great form, and played a spectacular game, caging three baskets. Artie Barrett played a great game for the losers, covering the floor in fine style, and scoring five goals.

The Public School defeated the "Stripes" in a fast game, the score standing 17 to 13. The game was not so close as the score indicates, for the School led from the first, and the Stripes did not play a consistent game. Levis and Johansson starred in a game featured by the School's teamwork. Remedios played well at center, and Brockett made a good showing at guard.

The Bearcats will meet the American School five in the third game tonight. The game is scheduled at the Y.M.C.A. at 9:00 sharp.

American Company Men Show Well In All-Comers; Wilner Wins, Scoring 315

Members of the American Company of the Shanghai Volunteer Corps gave brilliant performances at the Rifle Range Sunday when the third and final stage of the All-Comers' competition held by the Shanghai Rifle Association was held. In the third stage five of the top six were Yankees while Taylor, Bill Sauer, Lynch and Jerry Neal were first, second, fourth and fifth place men in the final stage.

R. F. Wilner, who has been very active in American Company affairs and is a keen rifleman, was rewarded yesterday with a 68 at the 900 yard mark in a trickey wind. He scored possibles at 200 and 500 yards, and won the competition with a score of 315 out of 350.

Following Wilner were L. K. Taylor and Bill Sauer, while F. E. Hodges, who won a year ago, was fourth. Lynch was fifth and Jerry Neal was sixth. Five of the first six are Americans, Hodges being British. Last year's winner had a couple of bad breaks and did some fine shooting in the competition. He made a possible at 200 yards, Neal won two years ago.

L. K. Taylor on his fine performance is promoted to "A1" Class.

MEDHURST TEAM WINS, 2-0, FROM DOONG FOUNG

Victors More Aggressive; Penalty Kick Allows First Tally

Medhurst College defeated the Doong Foung College soccer team by a score of 2-0, at the Medhurst College ground. Play for the first quarter of an hour was in midfield and neither goal was seriously attacked. Medhurst, however, were the first to become dangerous and some good combination between Tseu Tau-vung and Sia Chi-nan resulted in a fruitless corner.

The Medhurst wing men were showing the excellent form at this period of the game but the inside forwards were at fault in front of goal.

The Doong Foung forwards only made spasmodic dashes towards goal, and although half time came with no score the home team had been much more aggressive than the visitors.

It was not until about the middle of the second half that the scoring started. The Doong Foung goalkeeper ran more than the regulation paces with the ball and from the free kick, a Doong Foung back used his hands to prevent the ball entering the goal. The resulting penalty kick was taken by Zi Chien, who scored with a fast ground shot.

After this reverse the Doong Foung forwards became aggressive but their attacks lacked cohesion and were easily repulsed by the Medhurst backs.

About five minutes before time Medhurst again scored. This time Tseu Tau-vung, receiving a pass just outside the penalty area, scored with a good shot that gave the goal-keeper no chance.

Scottish Golfers Defeat Englishmen For Third Time, Win Bateman Cup

The annual golf battle between teams representing the St Andrew's Society and St. George's Society was fought on the Kiangwan course Sunday, with the Scots having much the better of the argument. It was the third win in succession for them, as a result of which they are now permanent possessors of the beautiful Bateman cup.

The play was in the form of singles in the morning, and foursomes in the afternoon. In the former the Scots won by 15 points to 6½, while in the afternoon they got 6½ points against 5½ for the Englishmen. Their total, therefore, was 21½ against 12 for the St. George boys.

The match afforded a lot of fun to all the participants, particularly the playing of the 19th hole. It was here that Mr. C. J. Scott, president of St. Andrew's Society, after thanking Mr. Bateman for his kindness in presenting the cup, went on to say how highly the Scots would always cherish the trophy. He also brought out a good round of applause by announcing that a member of the Scottish Society would present a new cup, to be competed for under the same conditions, and he expressed the hope that the Englishmen would make it a closer battle next time. Following is a lineup of the two teams:

St. Andrew's

C. T. Beath	0
K. M. Cumming	1¼

Japanese Crack Beats John Wade, Then Pairs With Latter For Victory

Five years ago a Japanese tennis player, by the name of Kashio attracted attention in Shanghai. He had been trained by the veteran Hayashi, and when he left here great things were anticipated for him in the tennis world. Kashio was with the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha in Shanghai and was transferred to the New York office, resuming his tennis in the big city, and eventually reaching the pinnacle of the net game—a Davis Cup player.

Sunday afternoon he was again playing here, facing an opponent who five years ago played him to a standstill, John Wade. The pair battled as of old, this time at the M.B.K. courts and those who saw Kashio Sunday and remembered him five and six years ago, marvelled at the Japanese.

Wade played sterling tennis, forcing the Davis Cup man to a six-four set, and Kashio paid him a great tribute after the match. Of Kashio much could be written—columns have been printed on his prowess. But the Shanghai tennis followers who knew him as a brilliant defensive player were surprised at the dashing, aggressive style of play which he has now attained. Sunday he used every stroke in the tennis category with artistry, and finish that proclaim him a truly great ...layer and forecast future ...triumphs.

He played both singles and doubles before a crowd of 300 fortunate Shanghai citizens of many nationalities who were the guests of Manager Nodaira of the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha offices.

Kashio triumphed Wade 6-1 and 6-4 and then paired with the Shanghai crack against the two best Japanese players here, Tanaka and Okada. Both the local Japanese played remarkable tennis, Tanaka particularly making many brilliant attempts, but seldom did either he or Okada find an opening, so sharply did both Kashio and Wade kill.

Following the matches the invited players were entertained at tea by Mr. and Mrs. Nodaira, the latter proving a gracious hostess.

Kashio sails for Hongkong and Canton today, on a business trip and will return to Yokohama following the journey to the South. In December he is to be married and will then go back to New York, where he is employed in the silk department of the M. B. K. offices.

Incidentally Tanaka, former Shanghai singles champion and one of the best Japanese players ever developed here, will be lost to Shanghai next season as he has been transferred to the Hankow Agency of the M. B. K. Tanaka held the local title two years, losing it to Bill Pott and subsequently taking it back from the St. John's Prof. Tanaka is the third Shanghai champion to leave the city within a year, Pott going to the United States and Parbury having been transferred to Harbin.

According to a letter received by Mr. Collaco, Secretary of the Shanghai Rifle Association, The North London Rifle Club shot its competition with the Shanghai team on Sept. 30 and achieved the excellent score of 981 against Shanghai's 978.

The communication telling the result was sent by Mr. W. L. S. Alton, Secretary of the North London Club who says when the contest opened the light was dull but good and there was only a slight but steady wind. The London team included some prominent marksmen, among them:

A. G. Burr, a well-known city accountant, A. G. Fulton, whose father has also won the Gold Medal. In addition, it was represented by this year's Champion. W. F. King, J. A. Smith, winner of King's Prize in Australia, McSweeney, winner of the Binley Aggregate in 1921, W. L. F. Alton (Team Secretary), one of the best-known shots on the common; and Elgood, another very fine shot, who this year only missed the Bronze, the Silver and the Gold Medal in the King's Prize Competition by one shot in each case.

A Warning to Mothers

In infantile diarrhoea never give medicine to check the movement of the bowels except upon the advice of a physician. The right treatment is to cleanse the bowels of the irritating secretions which are the cause of the trouble. Many mothers have found Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, immensely valuable for this serious malady.

Baby's Own Tablets contain no opiates and are a proved remedy for teething troubles, constipation, colic, indigestion, simple fever and worms. Of chemists, or from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai, at 60 cents the vial, post free.

D'ANNUNZIO'S PLAY

(China Press Service)

Rome, Oct. 12.—Gabriele d'Annunzio has been invited to Rome to attend a special performance of his play Fedra, which will take place on the Palatine Hill on Sunday next. Amongst the actors is D'Annunzio's young son, Gabriellino. Over five hundred students and ex-soldiers offered their services as theater "crowds."

Frawley Company To Stage Three Favorite Plays

The three favorite plays in the T. Daniel Frawley company's repertoire will be repeated during the closing week of the company's engagement at the Olympic theater, it was announced by the company yesterday.

The plays selected are "The Cat and the Canary," Wednesday night; "The Only Girl," Thursday night; and "Smilin' Through," Friday night. The last performance will no doubt be made a gala occasion, and as "Smilin' Thru" has been hailed as the most popular play on the Frawley schedule, a crowded house is expected at the final performance.

"Smilin' Thru" is a fantastic comedy with an English setting. In this play Adele Blood wears her celebrated radium gown, one of the unusual lighting effects that made the play a big success in New York. Mr. Frawley plays one of the big roles in the production, as do Herbert Light and Bernard Nedell.

For tonight the detective thriller, "Cornered," with both Miss Blood and Mr. Frawley in the cast, will be presented.

"The Cat and the Canary," it will be recalled, is a mystery play, sprinkled generously with much comedy. It caused much talk following its presentation here. Bernard Nedell, Gordon Davis, Doris Kemper, Betty Barnicoat, Herbert Light, Alden MacClaskey, Helen Barnes, Florence Roberts and Lester Sybe are in the cast.

"The Only Girl," with music by Victor Herbert, the composer of international fame, has also been hailed as one of the bright spots in the Frawley repertoire. Alden MacClaskey, celebrated baritone of New York Metropolitan opera fame, sings in the principal scenes, being assisted by Betty Barnicoat, Herbert Light, Bernard Nedell, Lester Sybe and Dorothy Kelvey.

Soviet Willing To Cut Army To 200,000

(Reuter's Service)

Reval, Dec. 3.—It is reported from Moscow that at the opening of the disarmament conference of Russia with the border States, M. Litvinoff read a declaration by the Russian Government expressing its readiness to reduce the army to 200,000, to dissolve irregular units, to limit war budgets on a reciprocal basis and to neutralise the border zones.

The declaration added that it was impossible for Russia to reduce its Navy.

The head of the Polish Delegation, Prince Radziwill, who is also acting on behalf of Rumania, expressed a desire for a political agreement as the preliminary to technical discussions. The Finnish, Esthonian and Latvian delegates expressed a similar view.

The Finnish and Esthonian representatives suggested that naval disarmament should be seriously considered. It was finally arranged to nominate various commissions.

Stevens Is Host To Newspapermen

(China Press Service)

Peking, Dec. 2.—Mr. F. W. Stevens, American representative of the New Banking Consortium, gave a reception in honor of the local journalists at noon today. Mr. Stevens declared that during the past two months, no loan negotiation had been conducted between the Chinese Government authorities and the Consortium.

In view of the present political unrest in China, he said, the Consortium found it premature to talk of immediate investment in this country. He added that when the opportune time came for the Consortium to advance loans to the Chinese Government, the loan agreements would be made public, and no secrecy would be maintained.

Italian Minister Questions Loan

(China Press Service)

Peking, Dec. 3.—Signor Cerutti, Italian Minister in Peking, has addressed a despatch to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, with reference to the Austrian Loan. The Ministry is reminded that the Chinese Government has not fully complied with the provisions of Article 14 under Part IV of the Contract, whereby new bonds are to be issued in payment of China's debts due to the old bondholders.

Signor Cerutti emphasises that China must be responsible for capital sums and accrued interest which have become payable before and during the war to nationals of the contracting Powers (to the Treaty of St. Germain) in respect of securities issued by one of the Allied Powers.

Bakers' Strike In Paris Is Settled

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Dec. 3.—As the result of an interview this morning with the Minister of Agriculture the President and Committee of the Bakers Federation, after consulting their members, informed the Minister that bread-making would be resumed tomorrow morning.

Paris, Dec. 3.—The bakers' shops were besieged at an early hour and were sold out in consequence of the decision of the master bakers to close down at noon because the authorities only allowed an increase in the price of bread of five centimes a kilogram.

The Ministry of War announces its readiness to place the Army bakers at the disposal of the authorities, while the Government has decided to prosecute the Master Bakers' Federation.

Bavarians Refuse To Accept Blame

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Dec. 2.—A communique issued at Munich states that the Bavarian authorities investigated the incidents at Passau and Ingoldtadt immediately after their occurrence, with the result that the police were not found blameworthy.

The towns apologised to the Inter-Allied Commission but it was impossible to take the further penal measures demanded. The Communique concludes:

"The behavior of the population and its growing indignation at the continued humiliating control are comprehensible in every patriotic German but the need of the hour is wise self-control and restraint of natural feelings. The Allied Powers must not be given a semblance of right to continue imposing oppressive and unjustified sacrifices."

We have had so many enquiries regarding our Bond Issue that we believe a short explanation will be appropriate.

Bond is the American name for Debenture.

Our Bond issue is something exceptionally favourable.

1.—The Bonds are as good as any Debentures because as a claim upon the assets of the Company, they are prior in rank to the rights of the stockholders.

2.—The Bonds are to be repaid at par in 5 years.

3.—They are in a way like shares because a bonus will be paid if dividends are declared in excess of 8 per cent. to stockholders. They are better than shares because they bear a fixed interest of 8 per cent.

4.—They are a wonderful investment for anyone because bondholders will get a discount card which entitles them to a 10 per cent. discount on all our own preparations and prescriptions and 5 per cent. on all other goods bought direct in our Pharmacy and Retail Department.

How much you can save by this is easy to figure if you know what your bill is for drugs, medicines, toilet articles, perfumes and many other goods you may purchase advantageously in an up-to-date Drug Store and Pharmacy. We figure that to the average man or woman one of our $10.00 bonds will easily bring in discounts not figuring the interest and possible surplus dividends. It is an ideal business proposition. Do not miss it as the number of the Bonds is limited and negotiations are pending with capitalists who may take up the whole lot. However, we appreciate a customer who buys one $10.00 Kofa Bond more than a non-customer who invests $1,000.00 in Kofa Bonds.

Kofa Bonds work for you all the time while money tied up in your cash box or safe does not.

They are "bearer" bonds. You can purchase one or more in our Retail Department without formalities.

You may also get Kofa Bonds through the Asia Banking Corporation, the Chinese-American Bank of Commerce, the Bank of China, the Bank of Communications, the Industrial Bank of China.

Outport customers wishing to purchase bonds should send in their Cheques by registered letter—their names will be registered on our books insuring that the special discount will be deducted on their orders.

TROTSKY REVIEWS FIVE YEARS OF BOLSHEVIST RULE

Soviet Commissar Tells Of Changes In Soviet Idea In Latest Speech

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, Nov. 21.—Trosky, People's Commissar of War, in his latest speech reviewed the five years' history of the young Russian Socialist Federal Soviet Republic, saying:

"In Russia the Communist Party has given a classical example of how to take possession of the state apparatus and then how to keep this authority, in the hands of the laboring classes. That we have made mistakes is another question; in the civil war that was forced upon us mistakes are unavoidable. Nevertheless we can state that the revolution has been victorious.

"To Western capital we can say that we have been going forward and retreating, but we have this summary of our revolutionary work: railroads, mills, factories, priceless underground treasure and all vital economic nerves of Russia are in the hands of the laboring people.

A NEW OUTLOOK

"By the new economic policy we have retreated somewhat but we have fortified our now positions and puzzled our enemies by a new outlook.

"The laboring class now has to use temporarily the bourgeois methods of calculations, exchange transactions, before it will be able to introduce new methods and detailed measures of expedient and systematic economy in apportioning live labor and the like.

"In Western Europe the proletariat will have to force through heavy obstacles on its way to power, but having taken possession of authority its task will be much easier than ours has been.

"Our mainstay has been factories and mills which we were compelled to nationalise immediately after having taken hold of the power. We were compelled for political reasons to seize mills, factories and banks. We were compelled to destroy at one stroke the old state apparatus. But in a backward country we could not create in twenty-four hours a socialist able to calculate and control the economic and political apparatus. War immediately was forced upon us and we shifted to military communism. Inasmuch as this military communism was imposed upon us, we were bound to commit mistakes."

Further on by historical examples Trostky says that the five years' period of Russia revolution is not a sufficient measure for its inward achievements. Five years are insignificant in the huge problem before the Soviet Government of Russia, the problem of replacing the imperialistic regime by the new socialistic order.

Form Credits Bill In French Chamber

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Dec. 2.—In connection with the renewal of the charter of the Bank of Indo-China, with which the Colonial Committee is at present dealing, the Government and the Board of Directors have agreed with regard to most of the changes, except the establishment of agricultural credit funds, in connection with which the Committee proposes the allocation of 1,000,000 piastres for assisting the farming community out of 6,000,000 piastres which are being granted to the Colony without interest.

Most Beautiful U. S. Blonde In London

MRS. Gerard Leigh, daughter of the late William Goudy, of Chicago, and wife of Captain Gerard Leigh, of the First Life Guards, is acclaimed the most beautiful American blonde in London society.

Hickson, Faith Healer, In Africa

Cape Town, Oct. 10—Extraordinary details have been published of unprecedented scenes which were witnessed in connection with Mr. J. M. Hickson's faith-healing mission among natives of the Transvaal. On one occasion in a place near Petersburg the missioner found himself confronted with an enormous crowd, there being over ten thousand natives present. Sick persons to the number of about 7,100 were placed in long lines of 100 each and the laying-on of hands took place.

At the conslusion of the mission there was a dramatic scene. While Christians stood singing "Nunc Dimittis," heathens threw away their charms and amulets. Numerous cures have been reported, and a great impression that the result may be a movement for which no branch of the Christain Church is prepared.

Mr Hickson visited Malaya a year ago.

Feng May Decide In Wu—Tsao Fight

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, Nov. 24.—With the political wires being pulled in every direction in the Capital, the position of General Feng Yu-hsiang takes on a peculiar shade. Having come from General Wu Pei-fu's area into that of Tsao Kun and the Chihli Party, his attitude in the fight between the two which is getting hotter all the time, might be a deciding factor if it came to a showdown by force.

Knowing that General Feng would be loathe to discuss politics at this time, an endeavor was made to sound his views through a close friend. After the usual platitudes about his coming north on the orders of the Central Government and a desire to spend all of his time training his men and to keep out of politics, the friend induced General Feng to say he really had four principles which he endeavored to follow.

The first of these was to respect the laws of the Republic and see that others did the same, the second to protect Parliament, the third to obey his superiors, and the fourth not to interfere with politics.

If the present split continues, perhaps General Feng will have to take sides on his second declaration, that of protecting Parliament. The fight now bases on whether Parliament or the Cabinet should rule, with General Wu on the Cabinet side and Paoting on that Parliament side.

Loss Of Ornament Trade Hits France

(British Press Service)

Paris, Oct. 13.—The charm of women's dress today is its simplicity, but the art of the modern dressmaker is costing France dearly. The lace and feather trade and other industries which formerly supplied these now superfluous ornaments for women's robes are languishing and the export trade of France has in consequence diminished by nearly half a milliard francs [about £10,000,000] a year.

M. Lucien Dior, Minister of Commerce and Industry, is disquieted by this loss of revenue and has addressed a powerful plea not only to the Chambers of Commerce of France, but also the great Paris houses which are the arbiters of fashion, to remember that the export of the accessories of female attire, such as lace embroideries and feathers, has fallen far below the figures of 1913. That, he says, is in a large measure the consequence of the present fashion, of which one of the most notable characteristics is the almost complete absence of ornaments. He urges the Chambers of Commerce and the industries concerned to find a remedy for this state of things and no doubt they will. Heavily ornamented robes may therefore be anticipated as the mode for next year.

Whole Town Gives Thanks, In Prayer, For Bumper Crop

(China Press Correspondence)

New England, N. D.—The wheels of time turned backward three hundred years here yesterday, when an entire village forgot the dizzy pace of the modern world and knelt as did their Puritan fathers to give thanks to the Divine favor that granted them a bountiful harvest.

For four years farmers of this community watched their crops wither and die. Last spring the community joined in a common prayer for a more successful season. Yesterday the people gathered again to give thanks to the Divinity who, they believe, heard and granted their prayer.

Pastors of the Catholic, Congregational and Lutheran churches led the thanksgiving service when 600 farmers and their householders who are not "too busy to believe in modern day miracles" turned their faces upward in the old hymn of harvest and thanksgiving "Come Ye Thankful People."

One Killed, 14 Hurt In Harbin Train Wreck

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, Nov. 29.—The Chinese Eastern Express from Harbin to Manchuli was wrecked near Tsitsikar on the night of November 22. The engine and four coaches turned turtle and fell into the ditch killing one man and injuring fourteen others.

Suspicion attaches itself to the cause of the wreck. Two of the outer rails on a sharp curve were systematically removed. The rails and bolts were all left behind showing that theft of the materials was not the cause. The culprits selected a good spot as it was the apex of a long curve at which point the train was running down grade. Moreover, just about one hour before the express was wrecked, a goods train passed over the rails proving that the rails were taken up during the interval.

The Railway authorities state that they do not think it was the work of the Hunghutze since their only object would have been robbery but nothing of that sort was attempted. Hence they feel that all of the circumstances point to a plot by certain parties to cause trouble for the Railway Administration.

'Tiger' Justifies France's Position

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Dec. 2.—In the course of a speech at St. Louis which was received with applause by an audience of 3,000, M. Clemenceau declared that France's debts came from loans contracted for the War. France from her own resources had to raise her ruins again and protect her frontiers and she desired to be paid in order to be able to repay her own debts.

He recalled the moderation of the Versailles Treaty, which bore the stamp of American genius.

In order to make efficacious the declaration of world independence, contained in the 14 Points of President Wilson, the United States would have to renounce her policy of isolation, and resume her place with Europe in order to prove that she did not regret entering the War for an ideal. In conclusion M. Clemenceau outlined the successful results obtained by the League of Nations.

Asia Banking Corporation

December 4, 1922

Spot bar silver was down 3-16d. and forward ⅛d. in London on Saturday. The new York price declined to 64½ cents and the London-New York cross rate improved to 452¾.

The only changes in our official quotations here today were a rise in the Gold Dollar rate to 70⅝ and in the Franc rate to 1010.

Our market here today opened on the firm side but on news that the Hongkong rates were down ⅛d. eased off somewhat only to steady up again later in the day, closing firm.

The lowest rate at which buiness in Sterling was done 3s. 1⅞d. for December-January delivery, 3s. 1⅞d. February and 3s. 1 1/16d. March. The lowest rates for Gold Dollars were 71½ for near and forward deliveries.

In the afternoon, however, speculators became strong sellers, selling freely for December-January delivery at 3s. 2d. and in fact some business was done at this rate as far forward as March although at the close there were buyers for this delivery.

In the afternoon Gold Dollars were done at 72⅛ for near and forward delivery.

At the close there were sellers at this rate for forward with buyers at 72¼.

There were sellers of Yen at the close at 67⅝ for practically any delivery, with buyers at 67⅝.

Banks were quoting 3s. 2⅝d. for Sterling bills, 73¼ for Gold Dollar bills and 1060 for Franc bills.

India and China sold silver in London on Saturday and the market is reported as closing steady. New York report their market as easy with sellers at the official rate.

Public Is Fighting Shy Of Rubber Shares Here; Export Tax Hits Singapore

BY THE FINANCIAL EDITOR

The past week in the financial world of Shanghai has been a fairly quiet one. There has been no significant development in the financial and business situation. The demand for rubber shares has continued, chiefly because of the firm market for the commodity in London. There has been a good appreciation in the values of the lower-priced rubber stocks. This means much to many who have held these shares a long time.

The interesting feature of the Shanghai share market has been its diversified strength. There is still plenty of money and this is naturally giving the share market an impetus.

Outside of rubber shares there seems to be a lull in things. Cotton shares are neglected for the present, but on Settlement Day this month there is expected to be activity for a great many speculators are reported to have sold short certain stocks, and if this turns out to be correct the ring that has been buying these shares would naturally be expected to make matters hum for the shorts.

Both on the Shanghai and the Hongkong Stock Exchange advancing quotations in the past four months have touched variety of issues representing virtually every line of business enterprise. The movement has been too broad to suggest the participation of small groups or of professional traders only. On the contrary, there has been broad buying from various sources and it looks as if this will continue for a little while and gain new strength. While some stockbroking firms have been through the medium of their circulars and advertisements in the press, loud in praise of rubber as an investment a large majority of the public are fighting shy of this. The rubber-growing industry has been depressed to a degree which has called for an organised restriction of production.

A few optimists taking a wide view of the situation seems to think that a period of unexampled prosperity lies ahead for the rubber companies.

We have already in these columns pointed out that the non-cooperation of the Dutch planters may have far-reaching effects very much more serious that the Shanghai market considers. The report of the Stevenson Committee was evidently concerned simply and solely with an equipoise between supply and demand. Many serious students of the situation think that the equipoise can be secured by natural processes.

INDIA FIGHTS SCHEME

The India Rubber Manufacturers' Association, which claims to represent 80 percent of British rubber manufacturers, is of the opinion that the scheme places a premium on in efficiency, and is, therefore, economically unsound. The efficiently organised plantation, which may be producing rubber at seven pence per pound, will be forced to raise its production costs a penny a pound. Before the restriction scheme came into force, under the stress of economic conditions, large numbers of plantation companies reduced their production costs to an economic level. It is argued that if by the adoption of the recommendations of the Stevenson Report that economic pressure is removed, costs will inevitably be increased.

The Shanghai public who are being asked to "Buy rubber" would be well advised to weigh all these facts. Some companies are producing rubber at an all cost of 9d. a pound, while others are producing at 1s. 2d. per pound. It is quite likely that very soon the rubber share market in Shanghai will slacken down and the process of sorting out the sheep from the goats will be in evidence. There is no reason why there should be a runaway in prices, as the supply of rubber shares is not inadequate to the demand.

SINGAPORE HIT

It must not be overlooked that the advantage of the scheme will mainly accrue to the Java and Sumatra companies. The keen demand for rubber in America that has sent up the price of the commodity is not from the actual consumers but from the speculators, who are cornering the market. The sudden rise is to a great extent due to the activity of speculators. The two great problems for the rubber industry which will call forth widespread consideration in the near future will be the expansion of the fields of consumption and the continuance of ample supplies of raw material at a reasonable price.

The United States is about the largest user of plantation rubber, absorbing about 70 percent of the world's rubber supplies against 12 to 15 percent by the United Kingdom. The action of the Stevenson report will mean that the United States will be mulcted many millions of dollars.

The Singapore rubber market is feeling the effects of the export tax and the restriction on production, and the visible stock on hand there, it is stated, is now extremely short. As a result prices are stiffer than they have been for sometime. The Japanese rubber market has consequently grown stronger, and although the present quotations are said to be driving buyers out in Japan, holders are reposing in the idea that the output restriction and export tax will prove beneficial.

Edouard Clunet, Famous French Lawyer, Is Dead

(China Press Service)

Paris, Nov. 13.—Me. Edouard Clunet, one of the most eminent French authorities on international law, died quite suddenly last Saturday at Strasbourg, where he was on his way to the Prague Congress.

Me. Clunet was President of the Institute of International Law, and more than once was chosen in view of his exceptional competence to defend French interests before the Hague tribunal—in 1903, for instance, at the settlement of the Venezuela question—an occasion which drew from him the remark, "The fairest and noblest client in the world is mine: France."

He was also a specialist in knotty points of theatrical law and appeared frequently for Mme. Sarah Bernhardt and La Belle Otero. He fought as a conscript in 1870, and in the same year founded the now-famous Journal of Private International Law. Me. Clunet was an indomitable worker. He wrote a great number of books and pamphlets, was a frequent contributor to the Temps, and yet found time to indulge in his favorite pastimes of riding and alpine climbing. During the war he was designated ex officio to defend Matahari, who was shot at Vincennes as a spy. He has died in harness at the age of 75.

Tsao Kun Plans Coup, Peking Belief

(China Press Service)

Peking, Dec. 3.—The rumor that President Li Yuan-hung, exasperated by the new Cabinet crisis, has left Peking is denied.

It is an open secret, however, that the Tientsin clique, composed of General Tsao Kun's adherents, is planning a coup against President Li. Every obstacle is being laid in the way of President Li and attempts are being made to coerce him to resign.

The Tientsin clique now dominates the political situation in the Capital. Through its affiliation with the Paotingfu potentate and its connection with Parliament circles, it is in a strong position to dictate the policy of the Central Government.

It is believed that in case of emergency, President Li may count on the support of General Wu Pei-fu.

River Steamers Get In Extra Trip, Due To Rise In Yangtsze

(China Press Service)

Hankow, Nov. 30.—The Chungking correspondent of the China Post reports, under date of the 21st inst., that the Shuhun is expected today and will likely be the last of the larger steamers to make the Ichang-Chungking run. On November 8, the water had fallen to 14 feet and it was thought the end of the season had arrived for the larger steamers, but a rise in the water enabled the Alice Dollar, Loongmow and Wanhsien to take one more trip than originally intended.

As the freight rate charged for these trips was Tls. 6.00 to Tls. 7.50 per picul it is probable the owners of the vessels mentioned are in a happy frame of mind towards the old Yangtsze.

Certain smaller steamers are to attempt to run all winter. If it is accomplished it will be the first time in the history of the river that it has been done by steamers. The Yuangi went down river a couple of years ago in midwinter but did not attempt to return. It seems that ships with shallow enough draught to be able to go down in low water have not power enough to do the up trip and those with power enough for the up trip have too deep a draught to make the down trip possible.

On the other hand an effort is to be made to stop all steam navigation during the winter months. Presumably it is the rivermen and others interested in junk trade who are proposing to make this effort. However it has been general knowledge that such an effort was to be made, for some months past, so those concerned have had every chance to contravert the

Health Expert Lands 'Low Necks'

(China Press Service)

London, Oct. 14.—"I only wish the Prince of Wales would come out with a low neck, and so start a fashion to rid us men of these horrible tight, unhealthy, stiff collars."

This was one of the many bright things in a Health Week lecture at Brighton, given by Professor Leonard Hill, director of the department of applied physiology of the Medical Research Council.

"All this talk about 'pneumonia blouses' for women is absolute nonsense," he said. "Women are much better, much healthier, and much more beautiful with their low necks."

Law Declines To Assist Miners

(Reuter's Service)

London, Dec. 2.—The Miners' Federation deputation which called on Mr. Lloyd George on Oct. 19 only to be told that he had resigned, today waited on Mr. Bonar Law to urge State assistance to improve the conditions and wages of miners.

It was subsequently announced that the Premier, while recognising the hardships of miners, did not see his way to alleviating them by Government intervention.

Good Roads In China

OUTSIDE of the Treaty Ports there are few roads in China that would be considered highways in any country outside of Asia. The country is criss-crossed with a network of canals dating down from ancient Imperial times, but the 'national highways' are little more than foot paths, or at the best, narrow, soft roads impassable to anything except a cart. In the Treaty Ports conditions are a great deal better. Shanghai, for example, has several miles of excellent roadways, but with the exception of the road to the Loongwha pagoda, and the road to Woosung, built by General Lu while he was Defense Commissioner here, it is impossible to drive an automobile or a carriage beyond the limits of the Settlement roads.

It is with a knowledge of such conditions that Mr. S. S. McClure, the well known American publisher, speaking before the Highways Education Conference in Washington, declared that the test of a nation's civilisation is whether it has good roads or not, and cited China as a horrible example. Mr. McClure asserted that until China was covered with a network of good roads China will remain disorganised.

It goes without saying that the Chinese have not taken rapidly to the construction of highways and the development of motor roads. According to the China Year Book, Peking has the most mileage of roads suitable for traffic of any district in the country. The Peking-Tungchow road extends 16 miles, and a road 25 miles long leads to Tangshan Hot Springs. It is possible to reach several other places near the Capital by motor car, and the new Peking-Tientsin road will prove a boon to dwellers in those two cities. There is a mud road that is almost passable between Tientsin and Paotingfu. Nanking has a short road from the city to the Ming Tombs that can be navigated. Nantungchow, the model settlement built by Chang Chien across the Yangtsze, has about fifty miles of fairly good roads and is perhaps the most striking example of individual progressive road development in the entire country. With those too few examples the story of good roads in China has been told.

The Rubicon Road, and other Settlement Roads in Shanghai are—with the Loongwha road and the Woosung Road—comparable only with Hongkong's roadway around the island as the shining examples of good road work in China, and they have been built by foreigners.

The spirit of good roads has permeated scattered districts, however, to such an extent that it hoped that the early future will unfold a systematic program of road building that will connect up all the widely scattered pieces of good roads throughout the country and provide China with a modern system of highways.

Canton has set out on a good roads building program that may bear fruit. The old city wall has been torn down to make way for a boulevard, and the Canton newspapers from time to time carry word that another maloo is under course of construction. A scheme for the construction of 100 miles of good roads has been accepted, and the good roads building carried out by the American Red Cross in Shantung cannot help but be a splendid example to the Chinese, and spur them on to building roadways on their own initiative.

The Good Roads Movement was launched in China at a meeting in Shanghai in May, 1921, and has in the short time that has elapsed, carried on a noteworthy educational campaign that will in time bear fruit. The movement advocates a road from Shanghai to Nanking, and from Shanghai to Hangchow as a start. Such a program should make an instant appeal to every progressive Chinese individual and organisation, not only in Shanghai, but in Nanking and Hangchow, and in all the cities and villages between. It should, in a larger sense, make an appeal to every progressive man in China because it is the beginning of a national movement that means a great deal to China, and is the dawn of an intellectual, commercial and political "new day" that will, as Mr. McClure so ably says, knock off the ancient shackles of China and allow it to take its place in the modern civilisation of nations.

The Making Of Jelly

BY LORETTO C. LYNCH

Your jelly—what's the matter with it? Well, one or several things. Perhaps you have not selected the fruit suited to jelly-making. Or you may have boiled your jelly not long enough, or too long. Again your proportion of sugar to juice may be incorrect. Sometimes, jelly is a failure because the housewife tries to make it on a damp or rainy day.

The novice at jelly-making should not try to make too much of it at once. A small quantity is better on which to gain one's experience.

The fruit rich in pectin and therefore best for jelly are apples, crab-apple quinces, currants and cranberries. There are a few other fruits rich in pectin to be obtained in certain localities, but the fruits named above may be obtained anywhere in our country in season.

Suppose you try grape jelly. Rinse and crush the desired quantity of grapes. Add no water. Cook until the seeds fall out. Strain either through a very fine sieve or a jelly bag. Measure the juice. Add three-quarters as much sugar as juice. Return to the pot and boil until a little dropped on a cold plate and allowed to stand just holds its shape without running.

This may take five minutes and it may take longer according to the quantity being prepared, and the weather. A dry day is best. The point is, it must be constantly tested and not allowed to over cook.

Apples should be cut up—skin, core and all—and allowed to cook until mushy in only enough water to prevent burning. Then proceed as with the grape-juice.

Jelly should be poured into clean containers and when cold, covered with melted paraffine.

Two or even three kinds of fruit may be cooked together with a combination jelly.

Household Hints

When separating the yolks from the whites of eggs a little of the yolk will sometimes slip into the white. To remove this dip a clean cloth into warm water and wring it dry. Touch the yolk with a point of the cloth and it will at once cling to it.

To clean candlesticks, whether enamel or tin, fill the candlestick with boiling water. Without allowing it to stand for any time, pour off the water and thoroughly dry with a cloth. By this method both the color and substance of the candlestick will be preserved.

A cabbage leaf is an excellent medium for cleaning greasy tinware.

SKEPTICISM

The baker's strike in Paris has been settled and the welcome news has gone out that bread-making will be resumed tomorrow. The only difference between Paris and our ill love nest in Frenchtown is that if there's any bread baked tomorrow we'll have to do the kneading. We had a cook for a few minutes yesterday but he'd evidently told the people he was working for that he was 'sick' and came long enough to look us over and now he's 'well.' Nevertheless we may all join in thanking the man who invented canned soup, sardines, et cetera—the etc. being especially good.

DREAMS

When sleep relaxes the face of earth
And softens its battle scars;
When Night unfastens her dusky hair
By the candle-light of the stars;
When the distant glow of the high-hung moon
Like a paper lantern gleams;
When the world is still for a little time,
It is then that we find our dreams;
The tender dreams, and the lonely dreams,
And the dreams that we thought were truth;
The silver dreams of our after years,
And the golden dreams of our youth.

Land Lighthouses

Future Airways Will Be Illuminated For Nocturnal Fliers

BY F. A. COLLINS

Land lighthouses will doubtless soon be as familiar as the sea beacons which guard our coasts. By illuminating the great airways night flying will be made possible in America, as it is today in Europe. The time required for carrying the air mail will thus be reduced by about one-half. Two powerful land lighthouses of the newest design have recently been constructed at Elizabeth, N. J., for the use of the navy at Hampton Roads and at McCook's Field at Dayton, Ohio. It is expected that these new types of lighthouses, or some modification of them, will be extended across the continent.

The presence of these powerful lights throughout the country will lend a new interest to many familiar landscapes. The land lights will, as a rule, be more powerful than those on the seacoasts, and be visible for much greater distances. The aid expected from them by flyers is entirely different from that of the sea lighthouse, and an entirely new form of beacon has been developed. Not only the lighthouse itself, but the light thrown from it, is in striking contrast to those along our coasts. Land lights are now in operation in Europe which are twenty times as powerful as the most brilliant coast lights in the United States, and have ten times as effective a range.

The land lighthouses which are about to be installed in Virginia and Ohio are of wholly different types. One of these throws upward a vertical shaft of light of immense power. Such a signal will be clearly visible in all directions for many miles. The second light is supported by a conelike base painted white. The light in this case is thrown outward and downward from a point above the cone. The illuminated base is thus visible whether seen from above or from any point in an arc of 180 degrees, or, in other words, from any point on the ground or in the air up to a point directly above it. In either case the signals, it will be seen, are unmistakable and cannot be confused with ordinary land lights.

The problem of the land lighthouse is wholly different from that of the sea beacon. The most powerful sea light in America, at the entrance to New York harbor, has an effective range of twenty-six and one-fourth miles. It would be seen much further if it were not cut off by the curvature of the earth. The reflection of this powerful light has been seen in the sky more than fifty miles at sea, but the light itself is not visible beyond a definite limit. The problem of the sea beacon is to throw a beam of light to the line of the horizon. The distance from the light to the horizon is known as the geographic range.

Unlike a ship, an airplane travels high above the horizon and the light is not cut off by the curvature of the earth. The air pilot can thus pick up the land lighthouse at a much greater distance, in short, as far as the light will travel. By increasing the power of such a land light its effective range may thus be increased almost indefinitely. A land lighthouse has been erected on top of Mt. Africa, near Dajjon, in France, which has a candle power of 1,000,000,000. Its light is visible in clear weather for a distance of 200 miles.

A land lighthouse to be useful for flyers must obviously be clearly visible from a point directly above it, as well as from the distant horizon. An air pilot on approaching the most powerful of sea lighthouses will suddenly find himself in a zone of darkness, when the light will be completely lost. Let him look in any direction and the light is lost, unless it be visible by its reflection. This dark zone lies above the range of the light. If the pilot continues, he will sooner or later find the light again somewhere below him. Such a light will be very confusing and dangerous.

Unlike the sea beacon, the land lighthouse is not displayed from a tower. The base is a squat affair, and the light is kept near the ground. The methods used for giving a light a distinctive character along the seashore will not be effective on the land lights. The sea beacon may be flashed on and off at regular intervals, and the navigator approaching it instantly recognises it by the duration of the flash. This plan would prove very confusing to air pilots, even if the light were visible in all directions.

One plan of making the land light distinctive is to cause the verticle shaft of light to rotate. A very simple and ingenious plan has been discovered for gaining this effect. A powerful searchlight is thrown upon a mirror, which is placed at an angle of 45 degrees. The light on striking this reflector is thrown upward. Now, if the mirror is made to rotate, the verticle beam of light in turn moves in a circle. A pilot observing this upright beam of light many miles away can instantly recognise its motion and identify it. By reference to his chart he can at once tell his geographical position.

The speed of the airplane is another important factor to be considered in designing and placing these land lights. The fastest ocean liner travels a little more than twenty miles an hour, while the air mail rushes along at a hundred-mile rate or better. The navigating officer on the bridge of an ocean liner usually has plenty of time to make his observations and consult his charts. The air pilot travelling at a two-mile a minute rate must have more warning. If he should observe a light signal ten miles away, he may be on top of it in less than five minutes. Should the signal only be visible two or three miles distant, it is obvious that he would not have time to consult his charts and lay his course. It has been decided that the land lighthouses should be spaced about thirty miles apart in order that the air pilot should have sufficient time to make observations and lay his course.

In designing land lights for the aid of air pilots it is of the utmost importance that the light should not be dazzling no matter from what angle it is observed. The brilliant flash of the ordinary seacoast light would be dangerous. The vertical shaft of light has the advantage of being visible from all directions and all altitudes, while it would not shine directly in the eyes of the air pilot except from a point directly above, and that in a very limited area. The illuminated cone base again is visible from any point in the entire hemisphere above it, while the eyes of the air pilot would be protected from direct rays.

"It is doubtful if women will ever equal men in flying. True woman's lighter body is an asset but she is also more susceptible to the changes of temperature, and to dizziness. Her nerves are a little less steady. It is a fascinating profession; one that appeals to women. We have already produced some wonderful girl fliers. Somehow this is one profession in which men have never seemed to resent the entrances of women. Instead they make it as easy as possible for them. It is a wonderful sensation to take off as I did recently from Crissy Field, at the Presidio in San Francisco, in an air mail plane, escorted across the bay by army planes in "formation."

"Man requires the sun. Civilisation requires the sun. It must have been the sun that first enticed the embryo of humanity from a gelatinous existence on the primeval foreshore. I believe there is no place in the world for golden sunshine like Capri. I want to tell everybody who does not know Capri about this place in the sun. It is never too hot and its charm is incommunicable. The landscape is really an inspired chromolithograph. Pen or brush that seeks to render its limestone and blue water is merely gilding the lily. It was for a place in the sun that Germany fought. It is futile to dwell in a land ruled by rain. Umbrellas! The hideous things are unknown in Capri."

"I am in favor of uniform marriage and divorce laws. I believe in divoce, but not as practiced in different States. It is ridiculous the way marriage and divorce laws are confused in different States and the marriage State labeled 'marriage,' 'no marriage,' or 'bigamy,' according to the State in which the law is invoked. In such a hodgepodge, family life ceases to be a sacred thing or even a permanent institution. It is the plaything of forty-eigth State Leislatures, with regulations swinging all the way from the narrow standards of North Caroline to the too elastic code of Nevada. We can scarcely expect our young people to regard marriage seriously when the law does not."

In The U. S. Court For China

Banque Belge Pour L'Etranger, Plaintiff, v. Montgomery Ward and Co., Defendant.

Cause No. 1800, Civil No. 633 Judgment: Filed Dec. 2, 1922.

SYLLABUS

(By the Court)

1.—Agency: Evidence. A document executed by a corporate manager reciting that certain goods, stored with the corporation "for account of" a third party, have been transferred to another's order, is prima facie evidence that the goods in question are not the property of the corporation but are in its possession.

2.—ID.: Authority. Where such manager is expressly authorised "to deliver merchandise shipped by the corporation to its customers" and to execute documents incidental thereto, the instrument in question is not ultra vires on its face, especially where it appears that at least part of said goods are held by the corporation for the purpose of delivery.

3.—Bailment: A pledgee who is entitled to claim certain goods by way of security for a loan of which pledgor has defaulted, is entitled to a judgment for the possession of such property but the alternative judgment of damages for failure of deliver, will be limited to the unpaid portion of such loan.

4.—Pleading: Such a judgment may be rendered under a prayer for general relief.

Messrs. Schuhl and Schoenfeld by Mr. Schoenfeld for plaintiff.

Messrs. Williams, Franklin and Faison by Mr. Faison for defendant.

Lobingier, J.

This is an action to recover the alleged value of certain personal property claimed to have been held by defendant in storage for another party and subsequently transferred by the bailor to plaintiff which demanded possession from defendant and was refused. The instrument upon which plaintiff chiefly relies as evidence of the transfer is the following:

"May 9, 1921.

Banque Belge pour l'Etranger, Shanghai.

Gentlemen:

The undermentioned goods stored in our Godown C6 and 7 French Bund and 20 Museum Road, for account of the United States Import and Export Company, have been transferred to your order and will be delivered only on receipt of proper order from yourselves.

One case, 10 Bicycles, Mark. 157403¼.
Six cases, 60 Bicycles, Mark. 157403.
Four cases, 40 Bicycles, Mark. 157403½.
Seventeen cases, 200 dozen, Lanterns, Mark. 162872.
Forty-seven cases, 47 Steel Stoves, Mark. 166222.
Sixteen cases, 18 Steel Stoves Mark. 171402.

Yours truly,
Montgomery Ward and Co.,
Frederick Tillson,
Mgr." (Ex. A)

It is admitted that Tillson was at the time, and had been for about a year, defendant's "agent and attorney-in-fact" in China. But it is alleged in the answer that he "had no authority either express or by implication to execute said transfer or receipt for on behalf of the defendant." (Par. 4). It is further alleged that the stoves therein described "were the property of the defendant" but that the remaining articles were not its property nor in its possession.

Various transactions between Tillson on defendant's behalf, and certain banks appear in the record. On January 6, 1920 (Ex. 3) and again on January 5, 1921 (Ex. 4) he pledged consignments of stoves to the Asia Banking Corporation to secure loans by it. On March 15, 1921 defendant issued to Tillson a power of attorney (Ex. 2) authorising him inter alia:

"to deliver merchandise shipped by the corporation to its customers in China/

And generally to do and perform each and every of the aforesaid acts and things, and to sign each and every document as aforesaid, in relation to the affairs and business of the corporation in China which is necessary in order to accomplish the purposes herein mentioned."

On May 9, 1921 Tillson gave his own note (Ex. 3) for Taels 10,000.00, pledging in security articles recited in the document first above quoted and on July 16, 1921 he gave another note to plaintiff for Taels 18,000.00 secured by "delivery order issued by David Sassoon and Co. endorsed by" defendant. This note was afterward taken up and paid on defendant's behalf by its present manager who succeeded Tillson.

The note of May 9 was due on September 1. Tillson paid Tls. 1,100.00 but no more. On July 28, however, plaintiff wrote defendant as follows:

"Montgomery Ward and Co.,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sirs:

With reference to our authority for purchase of bills sent you last month under account of our Shanghai Branch for Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000) we would appreciate your informing us whether the Shanghai office of your esteemed firm is a separate American Corporation, or a branch of your firm.

Please also let us know whether your manager there, Mr. Frederick Tillson has full powers on behalf of your firm and whether his signature is engaging your firm as such.

We understand from our Shanghai office that they may eventually be called upon to deliver goods against Trust Receipt and for that reason they would esteem being in possession of the above required information.

Thanking you in advance, we are,

Yours very truly,
Banque Belge Pour l'Etranger,
New York Agency"
(Ex. D)

To this defendant replied as follows:

"August 2, 1921.

Banque Belge pour l'Etranger,
67 Wall St.,
New York, N.Y.

Gentlemen:

We are in receipt of your favor of July 28th and are pleased to say that our Shanghai office is strictly a branch of this firm, and Mr. Frederick Tillson has power and authority sufficiently broad in its scope to act in our behalf, and his signature can be accepted engaging this firm.

Yours truly,
Montgomery Ward and Co.,
H. G. Henderson,
Foreign Credit Manager."
(Ex. C)

Accordingly on its due date an extension of payment to October 31 was granted to the note of May 9 and on the last named date a still futher extension. On July 1, 1922 plaintiff began this action, Tillson's power of attorney having meanwhile been revoked and he, it is said, having left China.

The defense is based upon the contention that Tillson pledged defendant's property to secure this note and that since the debt was a personal one he had no authority to do so. The only portion of the property which defendant claims as its own is the stoves and the only evidence which we have been able to find in support of defendant's claim of ownership is the following from the testimony of defendant's present manager:

Q.—Those stoves are and were the property of Montgomery Ward and Co.?

A.—Yes, they have never been paid for and turned over to any one else yet.

It will be seen that the question is a very leading one but that the witness instead of asserting title unequivocally, apparently means to say that the stoves were shipped here for sale to a customer who had not paid for them. Another of defendant's witnesses tells of the United States Import and Export Co. which Tillson organised and to which stoves, bicycles and other goods were consigned. If the stoves in question were consigned to that concern, title would seem to have passed for, as we have seen, Tillson had express authority "to deliver merchandise" to its customers in China and no restriction is imposed for default in payment. Apparently he was given some discretion to extend credit. The document upon which plaintiff relies and which defendant's manager signed describes the articles as "stores for account of the United States Import and Export Co." i.e., they were its property and nothing in the testimony above referred to or elsewhere found, seems to contradict that statement. Defendant produces no documents of title and as the present manager does not claim to have any personal knowledge of the transaction, nor even to have been in China when it occurred, we do not think it can be said that defendant has met the burden of proving its allegation of ownership.

And much the same may be said of the further averment that the remaining articles were never in defendant's possession. So late as December 1, 1921, defendant by its present manager wrote plaintiff as follows:

We beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of Nov. 30, 1921, regarding certain goods which should be stored in our godowns at 6/7-C French Bund and at 20 Museum Road, and which should be held by us subject to your order.

We regret to say that according to our records, the following only are at present in our possession:

Steel Stoves
Approximately 47 c/s
Approximately 16 c/s
Approximately 9 Bicycles
(Ex. G)

It will be seen that this not only admits possession of part of the bicycles but as to the rest merely disclaims possession "at present," leaving the implication that they may have been previously in defendant's possession in which case, of course, defendant would be obliged to account for them. We do not consider this showing sufficient to overcome the document (Ex. A) reciting possession on May 9, 1921 "for account of the United States Import and Export Co." of specified goods which "have been transferred to your (Plaintiff's) order," etc.

It will be seen therefore that the case as proved is not one of pledging defendant's property for the payment of its manager's personal loan but merely of his executing a document which transfers defendant's liability as bailee from the original bailor to plaintiff. This was one of the documents which Tillson was expressly authorised by the power of attorney then existing to execute; for it was incidental to the delivery of the goods. Previously, it would appear they had been held "for account of the United States Import and Export Co." Now they are to be held for plaintiff. But this change in no way prejudiced defendant and affords no occasion for repudiating Tillson's authority unless the goods were actually owned by defendant, which, we repeat, has not been sufficiently shown. The document (Ex. A) containing these recitals regarding ownership was executed by one who is conceded to have been defendant's duly authorised agent at the time. The document was admitted in evidence without objection and we know of no principle upon which it could be disregarded.

But while the document entitles plaintiff to claim possession of the goods therein described we know from another document (Ex. E) that plaintiff is not the owner but merely a pledgee and that its claim is limited to the unpaid balance of Tillson's note which according to the evidence is Taels 8,900, no interest being specified. We think therefore that plaintiff's recovery and defendant's liability, in case it cannot produce the property, should be limited to that amount although the prayer is for Taels 14,000.00. Indeed the evidence as to the value of the property would not justify such a judgment for the witness Parlant, who is the only one who testifies as to value, fixes the total at Taels 9,500.00, and while he is not positive that the property which he inspected and appraised is exactly the same as that sued for, it is of the same general character and description and the valuation which he gave was for such property. In the absence of any contrary evidence we see no reason for rejecting his testimony.

In its prayer plaintiff specifically asks for damages but generally "for such other relief as may be equitable and proper." The proper relief in this case would be the return of the property and that may be adjudged (1) although the action is not in form one of replevin; for the only difference between such an action and this would be that upon the presentation of a proper bond plaintiff would have been entitled to possession in advance of trial. The waiver of that privilege in no way affects the right of ultimate possession in case it is proved. We think the facts here sufficient to show plaintiff's right to possession of the property in question, and that in default of its delivery, plaintiff is entitled to a judgment against defendant for the sum of Taels 8,900.00.

It is accordingly considered and adjudged that plaintiff have and recover from defendant the following described articles:

One case, 10 Bicycles, Mark. 157403¼.
Six cases, 60 Bicycles, Mark. 157403.
Four cases, 40 Bicycles, Mark. 157403½.
Seventeen cases, 200 dozen, Lanterns, Mark. 162872.
Forty-seven cases, 47 Steel Stoves, Mark. 166222.
Sixteen cases, 18 Steel Stoves, Mark. 171402.
(Ex. A)

It is further considered and adjudged that in case of defendant's failure forthwith to deliver said articles to plaintiff the latter have and recover from defendant the sum of Taels 8,900.00 together with costs.

By the Court,
CHARLES S. LOBINGIER,
Judge.

CASTORIA
for Infants and Children.
The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying power, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them wilfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Power Held For Trial In British Supreme Court

Stephen Power, formerly Peking and Tientsin agent for the Sun Life Insurance Company of Canada, was committed for trial before the British Supreme Court at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing in the British Consular Court at Tientsin on the charge of embezzlement.
In the final hearing testimony was given by Mr. W. D. McCallum, manager for North China, and Mr. L. Ashcroft, resident manager at Shanghai, concerning the accounts of the company.
Mr. Ashcroft said that the company had no idea that Mr. Power was going to America until after he had gone, and that no agent was appointed in the North until it was discovered that he had gone.

75,000,000 Men In The Late War

(China Press Service)
Berlin, Nov. 1.—75,000,000 men were mobilised throughout the world during the late war, according to official statistics published here. Thirty million were under arms at the close of hostilities.
Germany's total mobilisation is given as 13,250,000 men, of whom 8,000,000 still were engaged at the end of the fighting. At the height of its expansion, at the beginning of the Western offensive, March 31, 1918, these figures state, the German army totalled 3,500,000 enlisted personnel and 140,000 officers on the Western front, besides 160,000 enlisted men and 3,000 officers in recruiting depots.
These fighters were distributed among 190 infantry divisions and two defensive cavalry divisions. They were equipped with 32,218 light and 27,143 heavy machine guns, 8,835 mine throwers, 5,652 field rifles, 3,158 light howitzers, 3,083 guns for heavy firing at high elevations, 1,747 guns for heavy fire at low elevations, and 1,137 aerial guns.
Horses to the number of 764,562 were "mustered" into the military service of the Fatherland.

Clemenceau Shows Teeth And Wins More Admirers

(China Press Service)
Chicago, Dec. 1.—M. Georges Clemenceau last night again proved his claim to the title "Tiger," when he started a counter attack against his critics, who had accused him of making a number of misstatements during his present speaking campaign, and went further and quoted and proved a number of astounding tales as to the discoveries of more hidden and buried war materials.
He produced an official list of munitions said to have been concealed by the Germans and unearthed by the allies during their control in 1921, in which he points out the discoveries of guns, cartridges, bomb throwers and gas masks under forty-five different incidents.
As a result of his speech of last night, a number of his most bitter critics have turned and are now making a show of being in his favor, and one of the papers which have been attacking him, have now published an article giving him great credit for his aggressiveness.

RUSSIAN GIVEN ONE YEAR TERM BY MIXED COURT

Sentence of a year's imprisonment was meted out by Assessor Blackburn and Magistrate Kwan of the Mixed Court yesterday in the case of a Russian named J. Mihailoff, convicted of theft and of returning to Shanghai after he had been ordered deported.
The accused was charged with stealing a suit of clothes and a leather case belonging to Mr. Cooper, 45 Kiangse Road on November 24. He was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment for the thefts and three months additional for returning to the Settlement. It was also ordered by the Court that at the expiration of sentence he be re-deported to Vladivostok.
A French detective appeared at the hearing and asked that accused be turned over to the French authorities, as the officials of that nationality in Tientsin had a charge against him. The Assessor told the applicant that in case the Tientsin authorities sent a man down here the prisoner would be hanged over.

Big Tokio Bank Closes Its Doors

(China Press Service)
Tokio, Nov. 30.—This morning notices were posted on the doors of the Tokio Osaka Sekiden Ginco Banking House at Tokio and on those of its eleven branches throughout Japan that they would be closed and that all payments will be temporarily suspended. Investigations proved that the cause of the banking house's failure was unfortunate and hasty investment in industrial shares.
The deposits in the Nippon Sekiden Ginco Bank run into several hundred millions of yen and its failure is being greatly felt throughout the nation. Panic reigned when the bank failed to open up this morning at the usual hour, and it was necessary to call the police to disperse the mobs who gathered in the streets surrounding the building.
